lite

niende, illes wholly to Negleth fe, by endeavouring would Powerly Eben the O part mailies of the solution of the 100. The Athenian Mercury

Saturday, January 20. 1694.

That time did Pythagoras live in, Qieft. I. and bow come he to have many Customs like to the Jews, if he learnt them not from them? and if from them, by what Means, or to which Sect did he incline?

Aniw. Many Chronologists affirm that Pythagorus lived about the latter end of Cyrus's Reign; Numenius, Porphyry, and others of his Sect, tell us that he had been in India, and had there learnt many of the Jewish Opinions; and it is most probable they were those of the Esteans, because according to the Account that Porphy-Ty, Hierocles, and some others give of their common Auditories, they were very like the Assemblies of these Fews: And Fosephus says that the Esseans and Pychagoreans lived much after the same manner.

Quest. 2. Of what Original is the Imposition of Hands? was it of Divine Institution, or an Innovation only? and if it was immediately Commanded, by what Authority is it now Practifed?

Answ. The Imposition of Hands was a Judaio Ceremony, which was not introduced by any Divine Law, but by Custom only, it being in general use amongst them, every time they Pray'd to God for a Bleffing upon any One, after this manner, that his Power wou'd Accompany that Person, as their Hands were laid upon his Head, and that that might be a Symbol that the Divine Power was United to him. And our Saviour followed this Cultom, as he did many others of the Synagogue, either when he Bleffed little Children, or Healed the Sick, always joyning Prayer to this Ceremony. It was purfuant to this Custom, and Consequently not from any Precept, that the Apostles laid their Hands on all those upon whom they Conferred the Gift of the Holy Ghost with Prayer. This was not in use only amonst the Priests, when they Admitted any one into their Number, as appears by the Example of Timothy, but the Apostles even received anew the Imposition of Hands, when they Engaged themselves in any new Defign. And we think the Authority of our Saviour and his Apostles a fusticient Warrant for the Continuance of it.

Quest. 3. If Souls are Immortal, and of Infinite more Value than the whole World, and if it be (as without the teast Doubt it is ) the Duty of every Governour of a Family to do what he can for the Conversion and Salvation of all those that God bath set him over, and committed to his Charge and Care, then pray what do you think is the Reason that Governours of Families are so little concerned for, and do take no more Care of their Children and Servants Souls, than they do of things of no value, and as if it were not their Duty that God doth require of them, and as if they must not give an Account for them?

Answ. That the Soul of Man is Immortal, has been fo long Granted not only by the Generality of Christendom, but by all the World except here and there a few such People as David speaks of, who have faid in their Heart there is no God, because they'r unwilling their Actions shou'd be Judged by him; that it wou'd be Unnecessary here to offer at a Proof, and fince they are fo, their Future Sate is undoubtedly of the Valtelt Consequence, of which most men being being Convinced, their Carelessness proceeds from a want of due Confideration of their own Duties-

Queft. 4. Whether it is not Necessary for Governours of Families to ask themselves, what God doth require them to do for the Souls he bath committed to their Charge and Care? and whether they can do no more for them than they bave done, or now do?

Answ. Masters of Families shall certainly be accountable for all irreligious and vicious Practices Committed by those under their Care, if they do not do their utmost to Discountenance and prevent such Courses, and therefore they are not a little Concerned in the Examination of this Duty; tho' most men men are too Remiss in it, and apt to think (or not think at all ) that if their Children and Servants do their own buffnels, and keep from injuring their Neighbours, they are not obliged to examine farther; but they may affure themselves God Almighty requires more at their hands, and if they do not take Care of their Souls while under their charge, they shall one day fadly account for it.

Quest. 5. Whether that Person can be a real Christian that doth not do what he can for the Conversion and Salvation of others? and if a Religious Man always endeavours to be an Instrument of making others so, then are not those excluded that Number who do not do their utmost to promore the Salvacion of others?

Answ. No: For he does not believe his Saviour, from whom we derive that Name; for the Bleffed Fefus has faid, Whosoever saves a Soul, hides a multitude of Sins; and again, He that keeps his Commandments, and teaches Men so to do, shall be great in the Kingdom of Heaven ?

Quest. 6. Whether the Conscientious performance of this Duty would not be much for the Glory of God and the Credit of the Gofpel ? and whether the Neglect of this Duty is not a great fin, and a Cause of much Dishonour to God and the Christian Religion?

Anfw. Yes, fince the great Caufe that to many Youths are Debauched, is either thro the ill Eamples or Negligence of those under whom they are Educated, which unhappy confequence is not only deftructive to Manners. but also it impoverishes the Common-wealth, for Idleness and Ill Courses have been the Ruine of many Families: And on the contrary, if this Means were taken for the Propagation of Virtue, the happy Effects would foon be found.

Ouch. 10 ... were on lugans that is in Quest: 7. I am Melancholly, and apt to have so mean an Opinion of my self as dispirits me in my Business, thinking I cannot do it so well as others, and that I am despited by other men, which does in some measure render me uncapable of doing it, and backward to engage in it; but whenever I am a little Admir'd and Commended by others, and can conceive a good Opinion of my felf, these things do elevate and improve me, that I am forward to Engage in Buffnels, and active when I undertake it, and perhaps do it as well as other men: Query, Whether the good Opinion I now and then have of my felf, and the Satisfaction I find in the Applause of others, be from Pride ? and whether it be lawful to a from these Principles, or I should (which I cannot otherwise belp) suffer my Distrust and Melancholly to fink me into Store and utter Neglect of my felf?

Anjus Your inordinate defire of the good Opinion of others, proceeds partly from Pride, and partly from Folly: From the first, because it feems you so much Value your felf, that except you meet with your due Praise, you scorn to oblige the World by acting reasonable; and from the second, because a wife Man esteems things as they really are, and is not to be byaffed by fo empty a thing as Popular Applause: But since tis as it is, you must e'ne like the Physician make Physick of Poylon, and 'till you know how to make a better Judgment of things, let your Weakness be as usefull as possible, for twill be much more profitable and lawful for you to do your Bulinels, the under these Inconveniencles, than wholly to Neglett it, by endeavouring to remedy the former, fince that wou'd be avoiding a less to fall into a greater Evil.

Quest. 8. We are two or three of us that are defirous to Learn the French Tongue, and not knowing how better to be rejolv'd, beg your Advice, what Method to take in order to the attaining of it, and what Books are most proper?

Anjw. Get some Master who has been Educated in fuch parts of France where they speak most correctly, the nearer the Court the better, for such a one is most probable to Pronounce well, whole Tuition you ought to keep to two or three months at least, and in that time you'll understand as much of the pronunciation as with continual practice will be requifite for you. We look upon Miege's Grammer to be the best, and his Dictionary is absolutely Necessary, and to Translate every day a page out of some modern History, Treatife of Morality, or little Novel, in which two last you will find most diversity of Words and Phrases, but for their Poetry tis a little too hard for Beginners. This Method, with continual Conversation, if it may be had, will prove successful in a short time.

Quest. 9. A Neighbour of mine under my Care, has frequently received the Communion from me, I not doubting but the faid Person was Initiated first into Christs Church by Baptism; but finding now that the same person being born of such Parents as are commonly called Quakers, I perceive be never was Baptized, wherefore I desire to know whether the person ought not now ( notwithstanding bis having partaken of the Communion ) to be Baptized?

Answ. Yes undobtedly, for the' Baptism ought to have preceded, it is no reason that it should be wholly neglected, because it has for fuch a time been fo: And it being an express duty to be Baptized, and the first profession we ought to make of our Christianity, yet where an Omission has been in Adult Persons thro' the mistake of the Parents, or in those that are grown up thro' their Misinformation, they are highly obliged to examine into it, and be Baptized with all fpeed, tho' they may have performed all the other Duties commanded.

Quest. 10. Whether an Infant that is Baptized in every thing according to the Baptism of the Church of England, only by a pretended Divine, such as has not been Ordained at all, ought not upon this Discovery to be Re-bapti-

Answ. No: For the' such things ought not to be, yet when they are done, they are Quest. 11. A very Melancholy young Man, living foberly without committing any grofs sin, beling pretty low in the World, intends to go into the Army, with a design to be Killed, or become a great Man, because be thinks that if he liveth longer, be shall commit more fins; is not fuch a design as this very wicked? he'll be wholy determined by you, and will be unsatisfied till you give an Answer ?

Anfw. Well, then it feems he'll be contented to fin on, if Greatness and Honour can void Poverty than the Opportunities of Vice and Folly; and 'tis not impossible but a desperate Man may get something by the bar. gain; nor is it any disgraceful way for a Man to endeavour to raise himself, though the most Noble and Warrantable Cause for engaging in such a Design, is the Desence of his Liberty and Religion.

Adbertisements.

He True and Perfett Narrative, of the Miraculous Cure of Mrs. Savage's CROOKED HAND, will be speedily Pub. lish'd by John Dunton and John Harris, Attested by her Husband and several Credible Perlons; all other Papers that are Publish'd relating to this Affair are imperfect, and against the Consent of Mr. Savage.

"He COMPLEAT LIBRARY for December is now Publish'd, containing an Historical Account of the Choicest Books newly printed in England and the Forreign Journals; as also The State of Learning in the World: To be Continued Monthly. This Fournal for December concludes the SECOND VOLUME: To which is added two Alphabetical Tables, the one of the Books and the other of the Matters. - The Complear Library for January is now in the Preis, and at the end of every twelve Months ( which shall contain an Account of all the Valuable Books publisht from time to time, and shall conclude each Volume ) there shall be added two Alphabetical Tables, TATHereas Sir Fames Montgummery with two Soldiers that stood at Mr. William Sutton's House in Berwick-street near St. Anns Church, made their Escape on the 16th of this Instant January, whoever shall discover the said Sir James Montgummery, shall have 20 l. Reward, and for Thomas Smith and Charles Mockclosh shall have & I. for each, paid by the faid Mr. Sutton.

Lixir Magnum Stomachicum : Or, the great Cordial Elixir tor the Stomach; of a delicate Flavour, and pleafant bitterifb Tafte: Not Rurging, but Cordial only; to be drank at any time, (but especially in a Morning) in any Liquor, as Ale, Tea, Mum, Canary, White-Wine, A Dram of Brandy, &c. It makes the best Purl in the World in Ale, and Purl Royal in Sack, and in Tea, &c. very pleasant and wholsome, giving each of them a fragrant smell and taste, far exceeding Purl made of Wormwood, which (being so bot and drying) spoyls the Sight, dulls the Brain, and drys up the Blood: This having the Quintescence of all the Ingredients of the bitter Draught (so much in use) in it, with many other ents of the bitter Dranght ( so much in use ) in it, with many other excellent Stomachicks and Antiscorbuticks brought into so small a quantity, as thus 30 or 40 Drops is a Dose; you may make it in an instant your self, in any of the aforesaid Liquors, but White-wine or Tea beft, and it much surpaffes the common Bitter Potion in plea fantness and virtue : This procures a good Appetite, belps Digestion and all Indispositions of the Stomach, or Sickness, Loathing, Naciousness (especially after a Surfeit or bard Drinking) strengthning it wonderfully, expels all Wind, purifies the Blood, and destroys the Scurvy beyond any Medicine known, with 3 or 4 Virtues more mentioned in the Bills fold with it, as its excellent afe for those that Travel by Sea or Land, &c. to which Bills I referr you, to be had Grass at the places where tis sold. Price One Shilling each Bottle.

'Tis Sold by John Dunton at the Raven in the Poultrey:

and at these Coffee-houses, Viz. Symonds-Inn in Chancery-Lane, at Vigure's in the Old Pallace-Yard, Westminster, Victualling Office at Tower-Hill, Man's at Charing-Cross, Essent Whitechappel, North's in King-street by Guild-Hall, Ric hard's at Temple-bar, Smythers in Thames-street, Will's in Covent Garden, Blacketts at Spittle-fields, Wests at the Postern in Aldermanhury, John's in Fuller's Rents, suckeridge's without Aldermanhury, John's in Fuller's Rents, suckeridge's without Aldermanhury, John's in Fuller's Rents, suckeridge's without Aldermanbury, John's in Fuller's Rents, Buckeridge's without Aldersgate, Hamet's on London-bridge, Brown's at Wapping Oldstairs, John's by the Kings-bench, Smith's at Lambeth, by the Church, by Mr. W. Collet. Fun. near the Hermitage, Tobacconist; Mr. Levingston, Fruiterer at the Royal Exchange, and Tho. Howkins in George-yard in Lombard-street; the Anthor baving appointed him, only (beside himself) to Sell it Wholessle, any Person wanting it to Dispose of or Sell again, may be there for ed to fin on, if Greatness and Honour can any Perfon wanting is to Difpose of or Sell again, may be there furnished, with Allowance for selling. Tis sold by some One Bookbe procured; so that he rather goes to a- seller in most of the Cities, and in many great Towns in England.